These three buttons, Home, Help, and Logout are always on top. It's important to log out of Blackboard before you close your browser. You have more tabs now. Please note the tabs and modules you see will differ depending on your role at the university.
In this module you'll find a number of important Blackboard tools. Most important at this stage is Personal Information. Go here to change your password and update your e-mail address.
This module contains important LTU links
